Display Booths

Looking for new education materials? Eager to show off new projects, techniques or green ideas?

This is your big chance to find what you have been looking for.

This fair is designed for ...

- ★ environmental educators
 - ★ a variety of speakers
 - ★ teachers
 - ★ community action groups
 - ★ camp counselors
 - ★ youth leaders
 - ★ environmental groups
 - ★ nature interpreters and naturalists
 - ★ any member of the general public interested in environmental education
 - ★ anyone who may have collected materials or may be looking for them

Display Booths

- ★ 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

The Fair will be very informal. Participants will shop around display booths that are set up throughout the area. There will be plenty of new material to see and people to chat with, so relax and plan to enjoy yourself. Materials on display may include pamphlets, brochures, books, leaflets, videos, posters, slides and lesson plans. Light refreshments will be available.

Workshops

- ★ 10:30 - 12:00 "Educating for sustainable communities: A hands-on workshop"

Diane Pruneau, Professor, University of Moncton

Diane is currently conducting a project in Cap Pél  where students and citizens unite their efforts to rehabilitate local coastal systems. During this project she has developed techniques and activities to increase awareness and engage people in their local environment.

- ★ 12:30 - 1:30 "The Wetheads"

Chris Porter, Tantramar Wetlands Centre

Chris, a teacher at Tantramar Regional High School, has been working with a group of singing and dancing students to rehabilitate local wetlands habitat and to create a "wetlab" in the remodeled school automotive shop.

- ★ 2:00 - 3:00 "Sick Schools"

Patty Donovan, Coalition for Pesticide Reduction

A parent and activist, Patty has worked to establish chemical-free schools in Districts 6 & 8 - no toxic cleaners, pesticides or scents. Currently she is focused on mold, bus fumes and other indoor air quality issues that affect student and staff health.
